AdventGX – Extending Extension

Community Tourism: Keys to Success

- Capitalizing on the inherent capital/opportunities of places (people, resources, history/culture)
- Utilizing a holistic, sustainable approach, building on the existing economy
- Focusing on comprehensive planning, leadership development and entrepreneurship
- Utilizing emerging technologies

Tourism done properly sets the stage for attracting new businesses (EDC)

- Quality of life
- Community assets
- Builds “community owned” businesses
- Distributes risk

Community Economic Development Model

Tourism is an opportunity.

For communities.

For landowners.

For small business.

All scales need to be successful – regional based

Focus on understanding needs and dreams, and devise a realistic strategy to make it happen.

- Community Dreams & Aspirations – Hope!
- Community Buy-in & ownership
- Community's initiative – grassroots driven
- Opportunistic, leverage support, using business model – sustainable perpetually

People, natural, heritage and other resources,
- These are the “capital” for tourism development
Package the product to tell the story of a place.

- Conversion into the products/experiences
- Converting the “Ordinary to Extraordinary”
- Making the linkages, attractions & services
- Interpreting and delivering the message

Technology tools help to attract visitors, and support business operations...

- The Web is the new “meeting place”
- Immensely versatile
- Over 80% visitors plan online, 50%+ buy
- Reservations, Web presence, business mgmt., distance learning (JourneyBuilder)

PROJECT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Delegates Plan Leadership Seminar

Representatives met with Texas A&M's Director of Professional Development, Dr. Tony Brown and Rudy Ruettiger, famed Notre Dame football player and inspirational speaker, to devise a strategy for a rural leadership development seminar series.

Art Seminar & Show to Promote Region

Van Horn will be host to the Texas Mountain Art Seminar, Show & Sale from November 11-17th. The event will feature a small business seminar for artists, as well as an art show and sale featuring artwork showcasing the beauty, culture and heritage of the Texas Mountain Region.

Project 7 Background

Van Horn is located at the crossroads of the Texas Mountain Trail, 200 miles east of El Paso in far West Texas. A community of 2,500, we have - over the last decade - established the infrastructure to support economic prosperity.

Now, we are embracing the abundant natural and historical assets in our region and building a vibrant future for our community and our region through a deliberate, opportunistic and entrepreneurial economic development project called Project 7.

Project 7 Mission:

Strengthen the economy and improve the quality of life for the people of Van Horn while vigilantly preserving the inherent values of community that distinguish this small town, the crossroads of the Texas Mountain trail. Achieve this by:

- maintaining an astute, opportunistic stance
- employing sound, integrative and sustainable tourism strategies
- forming micro-enterprises and technology startups
- creating and fomenting Van Horn's entrepreneurial culture
- upholding the small community values cherished by its citizens
- leveraging technology for the benefit of its citizens and guests
- inspiring leadership and innovation among its citizens
